

I fully support satellite radio and communications through satellites. Leave our first amendment right alone, that would be like limiting the channels on a satellite dish such as dish network and or direct tv. We pay for it so we should also be able to get what we want. FREE SPEECH